

NATIONAL CLOSE THE GAP DAY 2020

SHARING ON SOCIAL MEDIA

How to use this guide

An important part of creating change is raising awareness of Close the Gap and the fundamental principles at the heart of the campaign. We can help more Australians understand - What more can be done? Where to from here? Why is First Nations Voice and culture so important to our efforts to Close the Gap?

You can help us connect with more Australians.

Use the posts to the right and the hashtags on the next pages as a guide, or you are welcome to share your own messages.

Read more about the campaign on the ANTaR website and get the latest information and current news on Facebook.

Share any of the images on the page linked below together with your posts to help promote National Close the Gap Day 2020.

Help get others to involved and registered

"National Close the Gap Day is coming up on 19 March - We're getting involved, can you help? Throw your support behind Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander led services that succeed through strong connections to culture and community. It's the only way to make a real difference and Close the Gap."

Share the 2020 Close the Gap report findings

On National Close the Gap Day, 19 March 2020 the Co-Chairs June Oscar and Karl Briscoe, will launch this year's report at Tharawal Aboriginal Medical Services in Campbelltown.

At the time we will post content to the website and social media.

Be sure to like the Facebook page and share the stories and posts and help build a national conversation about embracing the First Nations voice and culture in Closing the Gap.
