National Close the Gap Day is a time for all Australians to come together and commit to achieving health equality for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

The Close the Gap Campaign will partner with Tharawal Aboriginal Corporation - Aboriginal Medical Service, South Western Sydney, to host an exciting community event and launch our Annual Report.

Go to the ANTaR website for more information, to register your support and get some ideas on how to host your own event.

www.antar.org.au/closethegap